MJC 09: British Romantic Literature

Unit 1: Historical and Literary Overview of the Romantic Period

- 1.1 Historical Context & Revolutions
  - 1.1.1 Characteristics of the Romantic Revival (The Age of Revolution)
  - 1.1.2 Origin and impact of the French Revolution
  - 1.1.3 Industrialisation and its social effects
  - 1.1.4 Concepts of Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity
- 1.2 Literary Features and Aesthetics
  - 1.2.1 Innovations in writing: Thematic and technical points of view
  - 1.2.2 Conceptions of Nature in Romantic literature
  - 1.2.3 Literature and Revolution
  - 1.2.4 The Gothic tradition in literature

Unit 2: Early Romantic Poetry

- 2.1 William Blake
  - 2.1.1 'The Lamb' (from Songs of Innocence)
  - 2.1.2 'The Chimney Sweeper' (from Songs of Innocence and Songs of Experience)
  - 2.1.3 'The Tyger' (from Songs of Experience)
- 2.2 Robert Burns
  - 2.2.1 'A Red, Red Rose'
- 2.3 William Wordsworth
  - 2.3.1 'Ode: Intimations of Immortality'

Unit 3: Older and Younger Generation Romantic Poets

- 3.1 Samuel Taylor Coleridge
  - 3.1.1 'Kubla Khan'
- 3.2 Percy Bysshe Shelley
  - 3.2.1 'Ode to the West Wind'
- 3.3 John Keats
  - 3.3.1 'Ode to a Nightingale'

Unit 4: Romantic Prose and Fiction

- 4.1 Mary Shelley — *Frankenstein
  - 4.1.1 Introduction to Gothic fiction and science fiction elements
  - 4.1.2 Major themes: Ambition, creation, isolation, and monstrosity
  - 4.1.3 Character analysis, narrative structure, and ethical implications